

Michelle Pillsbury

Trust Officer

Michelle Pillsbury is a Trust Officer for Dunham Trust Company, responsible for administering a variety of trust relationships and estate settlements. Michelle is a critical thinker that identifies risks while applying sound fiduciary judgement to trust matters. With great customer service skills, she is responsive and creative in problem solving. From reviewing new trust agreements, forming new LLC's, to maintaining and growing family relationships, Michelle works with our clients to ensure their trusts are administered with the highest level of service.

Before joining Dunham in 2018, Michelle spent 15 years in the insurance industry as a life insurance specialist performing investment management support and customer care. She is a proud native Nevada that enjoys meeting new people and helping people with their financial well-being.

At a Glance

- ✓ Trust Officer
- ✓ Responsible for administering trust relationships and estate settlements
- ✓ Has 15 years in the insurance industry as a life insurance specialist
- ✓ Local Nevadan

About Dunham Trust Company

Dunham Trust Company is a privately held trust company. It is licensed in the states of Nevada and Colorado and is regulated by the state of Nevada, Department of Business and Industry, Financial Institutions Division. Dunham Trust opened in 1999 with the core belief that cultivating highly personal service would make a positive difference in providing exceptional trust administration services. Whether we are working with a family running a business or assisting a wealth manager, building lasting relationships has been and continues to be our key to sustained success. Our senior trust officers interact directly with you so you can benefit from their extensive trust administration, operations and investment management expertise. We look forward to working together with you to build a legacy that lasts for generations.